Barking Blends promises

We're all natural

We only use all natural and ethically sourced ingredients. We skip the cheap fillers, by-products and artificial additives. Just lots of the good stuff, and absolutely none of the nasties.

We're caring

Just as much as we love our dogs, we love our planet. Sustainability is at the very core of what we do, that's why we climate compensate everything we do. We strive to be fully climate neutral by the end of 2020.

We're honest

We have nothing to hide. We proudly display our ingredients and their composition on the front of our packaging. We're fueled by customer feedback which we use to make our products and service even better. The pet food industry hasn't been transparent for too long, now it's time for change.

We're a community

Our customers, retailers and partners are all part of our community. Together we strive to create pawsome experiences that educate and engage a healthy lifestyle for our four-legged buddies.
